“ I'll never forget being in Gaelic Park to watch Mayo play NY with Timmy, the heavens opened and I got absolutely soaked to the skin, Séamus, Timmy and myself walked back to Timmy's where he gave me a pair of sweatpants to wear, they were about two foot too long but warm and cozy, we still laugh about that day and will continue to do so. What a lovely human the world has lost too soon, you'll be in our thoughts always. Much love and strength to Aunt Bridget and all the cousins, in sadness, Séamus and Lorraine McAndrew
