

Walter (Wally) John Dygus

August 28, 1942 - October 18, 2024

Walter John Dygus (Wally), 82, passed October 18, 2024. He was born August 28, 1942 in New Britain, CT. to the late Walter Thomas and Josephine (Yapczanka) Dygus.

Walter earned his education from Morehead University and NYU. He was the owner of an advertising firm on Long Island. He was a member of the St. George's Country Club in East Setauket. Throughout his life he enjoyed golfing at his country club, boating on the Great South Bay and volunteering for the Kiwanis Club in Weston, CT. He loved playing Santa Claus around the holidays for various organizations and most of all spending time with friends and family.

The warm weather and beaches eventually brought him to Lakewood Ranch, Florida. While the last chapter of his life was marked by the struggles of dementia he always maintained his sense of humor and determination.

Left to cherish his memory are his daughters Kimberlie Summers, Pamela Schramm and her husband Michael; sister Joyce Dygus and family friend Claudia Kulak; grandchildren Justin, Brendan Summers and his wife Brea, and Morgan, Lauren and Dylan Schramm. Marilyn Dygus. He will be joining his late wife Fran Hollman in eternal life.

His legacy will be carried on by every story we tell, laugh we share and memory we hold dear.

A celebration of Wally's life will be held in Old Saybrook, Connecticut at the Old Saybrook Inn and Spa July 5, 2025. Details to follow. Memorial contributions may be made in Walter's honor to Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health's Dementia Research Initiative online at <https://givenv.ccf.org/WalterDygus>.