“ Just finding out about his passing.. 😞 I would like to say... WAYNE.. was a BEAUTIFUL PERSON.. a very kind hearted.. gentle man..

My husband & I .. were very fortunate.. to have known him.. since 2001.. he rebuilt our carburetor.. overnight.. and continued to do repairs on our car.. for 12 more yrs.. till we moved back up north.. & then .. he was always a phone call away.. for 1 of my many..diagnostic questions.

I know.. he is in..the loving arms of JESUS ... he showed.. by his daily.. acts.. of kindness.. that.. JESUS.. worked thru him.. he never.. charged us.. more than we could afford.. for repairs.. & I would sit with him.. while he did them.. & ask questions about .. other repair problems.. & he would SHOW me.. HOW.. to do .. the smaller repairs.. myself.. His kindness.. never stopped.. with the last.. twist of the wrench..

Wayne.. made.. our world here.. beautiful.. now.. the STARS.. are SHINNING.. even BRIGHTER... because.. HE'S IN HEAVEN... SHINE ON WAYNE.. ✨..THANK YOU...FOR YOUR MANY BLESSINGS... MARSH & WAYNE.. & SASSY..the tempo... 🚗

“ Dear friends,
Was sorry to hear of Wayne's passing away. Wayne was always in my heart and thoughts.
When I was a boy of five or six, Wayne gave me a gift, my name cut out of plywood and glued on a plate. I still have it. I always think of Wayne when I see it.
Your friend,
Wyman
