

Wendy Lee Joffe

April 16, 1953 - November 8, 2021

Wendy Lee Joffe, 68, passed away November 8, 2021. She was born April 16, 1953 in Charlotte, NC.

She was part owner and operated a skydiving business in Lakeland, FL prior to moving to Bradenton in 2000. Wendy managed the accounting for local company R&S Professional Engineering prior to retirement.

In addition to skydiving, Wendy had a passion for music. She was often seen around the Bradenton area playing percussion in various bands, her prized instrument being her handmade Ashika drum. Wendy also loved to read, and left behind an extensive library of books.

Wendy was a generous spirit, who had a heart for charity, and for people. She will be missed by many.

Wendy was predeceased by her father, Jerome Joffe; and her brother, Michael Joffe.

A memorial is to be held Tuesday November 23, 2021 at Clancy's in Bradenton, FL. Open to the public 4PM to 8PM.
