

William Cayman Bohack

May 16, 1967 - November 5, 2023

William Cayman Bohack, 56, passed away November 5, 2023 in Sarasota, Florida. He was born to George Henn and the late Lois (Hekker) Bohack on May 16, 1967 in Manhattan, New York.

William had a career in marketing and was a website developer. He was an outdoorsman that truly embraced the Florida lifestyle. He loved Siesta Key where he enjoyed boating and fishing.

He will also be remembered as a spiritual man that openly expressed his gratitude to God for even his smallest blessings.

William valued his many lifelong friendships and was always quick to lend a helping hand to those in need. Most of all, he cherished the moments spent with his family.

Survivors include his wife of 11 years, Jessica; children Zachary Bohack, Hunter Bohack and Xander Bohack; and father George Henn.

“ To continue... I used to hang out with billy as we were older until teenagers when I had to live out west. He was a brilliant kid always active with ideas and always t through the years as we talked from time to time. He moved to Florida with his mom who did real estate there very well - while he went off to school. We were just talking about getting together last summer before this I can't believe I didn't know til now as I had an accident myself and taking care of mom and off h th e radar. I can't believe this is true ! Omg ! He must be playing a trick as I just was thinking of him. I must now find his kids and talk with them one day as I was think of a trip to Florida. All the best.

“ I'm beyond saddened.. We had messaged in October of 2023.....oh Billy. :(
Bill had such a brilliant mind.. He use to tell me all about how the internet was going to change the world....I thought he was insane at the time...
Bill may the fishing in heaven be all that you dreamed it would be.....
My prayers to his family and friends. xo
