“ Sending prayers and warmest condolences to Bill's mother Helen, family and friends. I worked with Bill at the Sara. Herald during his years there and worked with his dad before that - wonderful family. Bill was such a lovable & kind person and an exceptional worker. He made a difference in many lives and your day was better because of him. Memories & love for him will live on and he will be greatly missed. Among other things I will always remember Bill playing an air guitar, his love for pasta and his smile. Thank you Bill for being a gift to all of us! Sherry M.

“ Sad to hear this. Bill was a great person. I worked with him for over 25 years at the Herald Tribune. He was the best worker in the plant. Besides being an exception worker, he was an exceptional person. If more people were like Bill the world would be a better place. My condolences to his family.

“ My condolences to Bill's family. I got to know Bill while working with him at the Herald Tribune production facility. He was always friendly and eager to help anyone. Bill was always positive, funny, and performed the best at everything we did there. I will never forget how much he helped us get the paper out. Thanks for the great memories my friend!

“ I knew Bill for like 26 years. This man had a heart of fricking gold. Always willing to drop everything to help someone that asked him. We would always joke around and just be mental. Thanks for the good times my friend❤️
