

Zachary Emmett Lavoy

August 16, 1990 - November 29, 2023

USAF Technical Sergeant Zachary (Zach) Emmett Lavoy, 33, passed away November 29, 2023. He was among the eight service members who died when their Osprey military aircraft crashed off the coast of Japan.

He was born August 16, 1990 in North Bay, Ontario, Canada. He spent his childhood growing up in Lake Placid, Florida. He has since lived all across the US, including Nellis AFB (NV), Hurlburt AFB (FL), Cannon AFB (NM), and Kadena (Okinawa, Japan).

Zach's life was dedicated to serving others. He had a beautiful, servants' heart. He laid down his life at the cross daily and fervently pursued a relationship with his Lord and savior, Jesus Christ. Zach enjoyed the beach, swimming, eating fine food, getting tattoos and spending time with his friends and family. He loved medicine and was committed to learning to serve his patients best. He was an encourager, teammate, teacher, and mentor. His character and values were of impeccable integrity and honor.

Zach answered the call few take and he served proudly in the USAF for 10 years. He was an accomplished and compassionate medic.
